

Start planning your career now

A guide to making the most of your time at City to get the job you want

Postgraduate students
If you think you have missed out on some of these opportunities during your previous studies, you still have time to get on track. Please book an appointment to see a Careers Consultant to create a career action plan.

Use our service throughout your studies

Find the interactive version of this guide, including useful links and resources at: www.city.ac.uk/careers-planner