

Application to lead Friday (Jummah) Prayers

This application form is for students and staff of City, University of London who wish to lead Friday (Jummah) prayers on University premises. External speakers are not permitted to lead Friday prayers at the University.

Name	Please enter your full name
Email	Please enter the best email address to contact you on
Telephone	Please enter the best number to contact you on
School of Islam	Which School of Islam do you follow, for example Sunni, Shi'ah etc ?

Friday prayer is led by students or staff at City. Anyone who applies using this form will be able to access training which will support them to develop the skills necessary to competently lead Friday prayer. This is a development opportunity which all who aspire to lead Friday prayer are expected to take advantage of.

Your application will go to the Friday Prayer Group, which includes University, Students' Union and Muslim Student Society Representatives. The Group will schedule your training, if required, and allocate date/s when you will lead prayer.

To enable the Group to do this, please provide some information about yourself:

Why do you want to lead Friday Prayers at City University London?

What previous experience (if any) do you have of leading Friday prayers?

Have you previously taken part in any training to lead Friday prayers? If so, please explain and give the names of the organisation/s you did the training with.

Have you led Friday Prayer at City, or at Tompion Hall, in the past? YES/NO

Proposed Topic:

You may propose your own topic for Friday Prayer, or choose a topic from the topic bank provided by the Friday Prayer Group. The topic will be confirmed by the Friday Prayer Group when they review applications, to ensure that a range of topics are covered through the academic year, appropriate to the time of year. Please briefly explain below the topic that you wish to speak about.

Your available dates:

Please be aware that depending upon your experience, you may need to undertake some training before you lead prayer, which will be scheduled by the Friday Prayer Group. We recommend that you provide a choice of dates in the box below that you will be available, to allow the group flexibility around scheduling the date that you will lead the prayer.

How did you find out about this opportunity?

We are keen that as many students and staff as possible are given the opportunity to lead Friday prayer, and it is helpful for us to know where you heard about this opportunity.
